

SOCIAL STUDIES 30-1: Perspectives on Ideology

Overview

Students will explore the origins and complexities of ideologies and examine multiple perspectives regarding the principles of classical and modern liberalism. An analysis of various political and economic systems will allow students to assess the viability of the principles of liberalism. Developing understandings of the roles and responsibilities associated with citizenship will encourage students to respond to emergent global issues.

Rationale

The principles of liberalism have played a significant role in the development of modern democratic societies. Developing a comprehensive understanding of the evolution of modern liberal thought and the tenets of competing ideologies is important in the development of active, informed and responsible citizens. This understanding will enable students to effectively investigate, analyze and evaluate government policies and actions and develop individual and collective responses to contemporary local, national and global issues.

Key Issue

To what extent should we embrace an ideology?

Key Outcome

Students will understand, assess and respond to the complexities of ideologies.

Related Issues

1. To what extent should ideology be the foundation of identity?

General Outcomes

Students will explore the relationship between identity and ideology.

2. To what extent is resistance to liberalism justified?

Students will assess impacts of, and reactions to, principles of liberalism.

3. To what extent are the principles of liberalism viable?

Students will assess the extent to which the principles of liberalism are viable in a contemporary world.

4. To what extent should my actions as a citizen be shaped by an ideology?

Students will assess their rights, roles and responsibilities as citizens.

Benchmark Skills and Processes

The following benchmark skills and processes are outcomes to be achieved by the end of Social Studies 30-1.

Dimensions of Thinking
critical thinking and creative thinking	evaluate ideas and information from multiple sources
historical thinking	analyze multiple historical and contemporary perspectives within and across cultures
geographic thinking	analyze the impact of physical and human geography on history
decision making and problem solving	demonstrate leadership in groups to achieve consensus, solve problems, formulate positions and take action, if appropriate, on important issues
Social Participation as a Democratic Practice
cooperation, conflict resolution and consensus building	demonstrate leadership by initiating and employing various strategies to resolve conflicts peacefully and equitably
age-appropriate behaviour for social involvement	demonstrate leadership by engaging in actions that enhance personal and community well-being
Research for Deliberative Inquiry
research and information	develop, express and defend an informed position on an issue
Communication
oral, written and visual literacy	communicate effectively to express a point of view in a variety of situations
media literacy	assess the authority, reliability and validity of electronically accessed information

SKILLS AND PROCESSES FOR SOCIAL STUDIES 30-1

The following skills and processes are outcomes to be achieved by the end of Social Studies 30-1. Selected Information and Communication Technology (ICT) outcomes are suggested throughout the program and are indicated by this symbol $\frac{3}{4}$.

Students will:

S.1 develop skills of critical thinking and creative thinking:

- evaluate ideas and information from multiple sources
- determine relationships among multiple and varied sources of information
- assess the validity of information based on context, bias, sources, objectivity, evidence or reliability
- predict likely outcomes based on factual information
- evaluate personal assumptions and opinions to develop an expanded appreciation of a topic or an issue
- synthesize information from contemporary and historical issues to develop an informed position
- evaluate the logic of assumptions underlying a position
- assemble seemingly unrelated information to support an idea or to explain an event
- analyze current affairs from a variety of perspectives

S.2 develop skills of historical thinking:

- analyze multiple historical and contemporary perspectives within and across cultures
- analyze connections among patterns of historical change by identifying cause and effect relationships
- compare similarities and differences among historical narratives
- evaluate the impact of significant historical periods and patterns of change on the contemporary world
- discern historical facts from historical interpretations through an examination of multiple sources
- identify reasons underlying similarities and differences among historical narratives
- develop a reasoned position that is informed by historical and contemporary evidence
- $\frac{3}{4}$ demonstrate an understanding of how changes in technology can benefit or harm society—in the context of the present, the future and various historical time periods
- $\frac{3}{4}$ use current, reliable information sources from around the world

S.3 develop skills of geographic thinking:

- analyze the impact of physical and human geography on history
- make inferences and draw conclusions from maps and other geographical sources
- locate, gather, interpret and organize information, using historical maps
- develop and assess geographic representations to demonstrate the impact of factors of geography on world events
- assess the impact of human activities on the land and the environment
- assess how human interaction impacts geopolitical realities
- $\frac{3}{4}$ use current, reliable information sources from around the world, including online atlases

- S.4 demonstrate skills of decision making and problem solving:
- demonstrate leadership in groups to achieve consensus, solve problems, formulate positions and take action, if appropriate, on important issues
 - develop inquiry strategies to make decisions and solve problems
 - generate and apply new ideas and strategies to contribute to decision making and problem solving
- ¾ describe a plan of action to use technology to solve a problem
- ¾ use appropriate tools and materials to accomplish a plan of action

Students will:

- S.5 demonstrate skills of cooperation, conflict resolution and consensus building:
- demonstrate leadership by initiating and employing various strategies to resolve conflicts peacefully and equitably
 - participate in persuading, compromising and negotiating to resolve conflicts and differences
 - interpret patterns of behaviour and attitudes that contribute or pose obstacles to cross-cultural understanding
 - demonstrate leadership during discussions and group work
 - respect the needs and perspectives of others
 - collaborate in groups to solve problems
- S.6 develop age-appropriate behaviour for social involvement as responsible citizens contributing to their community:
- demonstrate leadership by engaging in actions that enhance personal and community well-being
 - acknowledge the importance of multiple perspectives in a variety of situations

Students will:

- S.7 apply the research process:
- develop, express and defend an informed position on an issue
 - reflect on changes of perspective or opinion based on information gathered and research conducted
 - draw pertinent conclusions based on evidence derived from research
 - demonstrate proficiency in the use of research tools and strategies to investigate issues
 - consult a wide variety of sources, including oral histories, that reflect varied viewpoints on particular issues
 - integrate and synthesize argumentation and evidence to provide an informed opinion on a research question or an issue of inquiry
 - develop, refine and apply questions to address an issue
 - select and analyze relevant information when conducting research
- ¾ plan and perform complex searches, using digital sources
- ¾ use calendars, time management or project management software to assist in organizing the research process
- ¾ generate new understandings of issues by using some form of technology to facilitate the process
- ¾ record relevant data for acknowledging sources of information, and cite sources correctly
- ¾ respect ownership and integrity of information

Students will:

S.8 demonstrate skills of oral, written and visual literacy:

- communicate effectively to express a point of view in a variety of situations
- use skills of formal and informal discussion and/or debate to persuasively express informed viewpoints on an issue
- ask respectful and relevant questions of others to clarify viewpoints
- listen respectfully to others
- use a variety of oral, visual and print sources to present informed positions on issues
- ¾ apply information technologies for context (situation, audience and purpose) to extend and communicate understanding of complex issues
- ¾ use appropriate presentation software to demonstrate personal understandings
- ¾ compose, revise and edit text
- ¾ apply general principles of graphic layout and design to a document in process
- ¾ understand that different types of information may be used to manipulate and control a message (e.g., graphics, photographs, graphs, charts and statistics)
- ¾ apply principles of graphic design to enhance meaning and engage audiences

S.9 develop skills of media literacy:

- ¾ assess the authority, reliability and validity of electronically accessed information
- ¾ evaluate the validity of various points of view presented in the media
- ¾ appraise information from multiple sources, evaluating each source in terms of the author's perspective or bias and use of evidence
- ¾ analyze the impact of various forms of media, identifying complexities and discrepancies in the information and making distinctions between sound generalizations and misleading oversimplification
- ¾ demonstrate discriminatory selection of electronically accessed information that is relevant to a particular topic
